Au Revoir et A bientôt, Fr. Rodlin!

Fr. Rodlin's Last Testament to Saints JFX

For whatever reason, I don't like the word "Farewell" and I don't want to say it. I don't like it because at each funeral I have had the privilege to preside over, I say farewell to the deceased person. In my subconscious mind, this word is associated with death. Keeping this in mind, I will not say "Farewell", but I must say "Goodbye" and "See you soon" to all of you.

In life, it doesn't matter how long it has been, it's always too early and too sad to say goodbye, especially to a community like Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier. But sometimes it's necessary. I wish I could stay longer with you and for you, but I know I leave you in good hands -- the Hands of God Almighty. No hands are better than His hand; that's why He took flesh through the incarnation of Jesus to become not only our good shepherd but also the best and most genuine shepherd the world has ever known.

I confess that I will miss every single one of you. Saints JFX is such a wonderful and welcoming community because of you. I remember how you welcomed me when I came here almost six years ago. I have felt that this biblical passage from Matthew is a reality here at Saints JFX: "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me in" (Matthew). Thank you for making this my home for so many years.

During my time here, working with you, ministering to you, praying with you and for you, I have learned a lot from you. I have grown significantly as a person and as a priest. I have grown in my approach to ministry, sense of community and sense of brotherhood. You have helped me to grow spiritually and strengthened my vocation as a priest. I hope that you have learned something from me as well during my time here.

As you know, I will not be too far from you. The Cardinal has appointed me as the administrator of St. Joan of Arc in Skokie for the next six months. Feel free to stop by and say hello -- especially next year when the virus is under control. I promise I will make you feel right at home.

Meanwhile let us keep each other in our prayers. I assure you of my prayers and I humbly ask that you keep me in yours as well.

Advent blessings to all of you.

Pax,
Fr. Rodlin

Happy New Year!
