During the month of May we will pray the Rosary every evening at 7:00 pm in our Marian garden behind St. Joseph School. You can park in the school parking lot and walk to the back of the school, between the convent and school building. This May brings another unique effort to bond together as people of faith and to offer our prayers for the healing of our brothers and sisters and an end to the COVID-19 pandemic. Please join us in prayer as we ask for the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Dear Friends,

"I will be the vine, and you will be the branches. All you who live in me will have eternal life." Liam Lawton, a Catholic priest from the Diocese of Kildare in Ireland, inspired by the words from today's Gospel, wrote a beautiful song. I've been singing the song all week. The lyrics contain a reminder and an invitation – both perfect for this, the second of two First Communion weekends, and as we prepare to celebrate four Confirmations in the next ten days.

Just as the branches cannot survive without the vine, we cannot survive without Jesus. He nourishes us and sustains us, and keeps us connected one to the other, exactly the way the vine does for the branches. The young people preparing for the Sacraments need our Lord. It is up to us, their parents, teachers, and religious leaders, to strive to make their connection with the Lord happen. The best way we do this is by taking them to Mass each week, and by making prayer part of our daily lives in the home.

The nourishment Christ can give us through the Sacraments, especially the Sacrament of the Eucharist, provides the fortitude we need to combat the difficulties this life can throw at us. As a student, I made frequent reception of the Eucharist a part of my life, from the time I was about nine years old until my ordination to the priesthood. Obviously, the Eucharist compels me and supports me as a priest. It is the center of my life.

Jesus says in the Gospel, and I've been singing in Father Lawton's song this week, that if we live in him, we will have eternal life. So the connection to the Lord in the Sacraments doesn't only help us for this age but in the age to come. Too often, I hear from the young people when I ask them about their church attendance, "My parents are too busy..."

I plead with you today, especially you parents of those receiving the Sacraments; do not be too busy to bring your children to Church. We have plenty of opportunities to come together on the weekends to worship the vine grower and to stay connected to the vine. We have two Saturday and two Sunday Masses in church and two car Masses to accommodate the vulnerable population and those who missed the sign up for in-church Masses. No one should be too busy to stay connected to the vine. No one should be too busy to live in Jesus. No one should be too busy to strive for eternal life with Jesus.

Sometimes I hear young (and not-so-young) people say, "Why do I have to go to church? I can pray at home, or on the beach, or in the woods..." The vine grower planted the vine. The branches have grown from the vine and only live well if they are connected to the vine and to one another. So, it is with religion. We relate one to another, fed by the one who feeds us the best.

Weekly Mass attendance connects us to a community of believers. Many people lament the lack of connection we have felt during this pandemic. We connect to one another at Mass. As we continue to reopen, we will hopefully soon allow more people in church for Sunday worship so that our Masses won't be fully subscribed in the first hour of availability. I encourage you to come and connect with the vine and with the other branches of the vine. The vine connects us to one another.

Right relationships lead us to God. Relating first and foremost to the Son, and then one to another as a community of believers, will indeed lead us to God. Isn't that what we all want – to be lead to God?

In the first verse of Father Lawton's beautiful song, we hear a command and a great promise. "Remain in me as I remain in you. You may ask what you will, ask what you will and you shall receive." As we welcome the young people of Saints JFX to the Sacrament of the Eucharist and Confirmation, let's commit to welcoming them always and encouraging them to participate fully in the life of the Church, and to stay connected to the vine. Let's teach them to ask the Lord for what they need. Let's do it with our words and by our example.

Peace,

PS We congratulate all those who receive the Sacraments of Initiation this weekend and the Confirmation candidates who will receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit next week. May they always know they have a home at Saints JFX! And I thank the parents, teachers, catechists, and especially Dana and Dani who have brought them to this point in their faith journey.
