The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is dedicated to helping the poor and others who have fallen upon difficult times. If you or someone you know is in need of help, please call the parish office at 847/256-4250 and ask for extension 44. If you are calling outside of business hours, press 3 to leave a message, and we will return your call as soon as possible. All inquiries are treated in confidence.

"In Service of Others" is a ministry that is part of the Women's Club. The purpose is to help parishioners with temporary needs such as picking up items at grocery stores, pharmacies, or local stores, running errands, bringing meals, providing rides to doctors' appointments, or Sunday Mass.

If you require short-term help for these basic needs, please call the SFX parish office at 847-256-4250 and give the information to the office. This information will be given to the chairs of this ministry, and someone will respond to you directly.

This ministry is open to all parishioners – we need many volunteers for this to work for us all. If you are interested in helping, please contact us at ssjfxwomensclub@gmail.com.

Dear Friends,

I hope you'll pardon my excitement. Each year I get increasingly excited to enter into the Passion of the Lord on Holy Week. Perhaps it's because each year I become increasingly aware of our need for that which we commemorate this week. Starting today, Palm Sunday, we enter with Jesus into the most prayerful, most meaningful, most exciting time of the year. This week helps everything in our Christian lives make a little more sense.

It may be tempting to allow the terror of the war in Ukraine to take away the hope this week offers to all of us. Jesus' actions over two thousand years ago made this week holy; our task is to have this week (and our participation in the week's events) make us holy – and hope filled. With a joyful hope I invite you to revel in the accounts of everything that happens this week. I cannot stress to you enough how important it is for Catholics to truly enter the events of this week. April 10 – April 17, 2022 has the potential of changing us forever.

On Tuesday, Cardinal Cupich will celebrate, with the priests and people of the Archdiocese, the Chrism Mass at Holy Name Cathedral. At the Chrism Mass, I will join my brother priests renewing the promises we made at ordination. Additionally, the Cardinal will bless and consecrate the three oils that will be used in all the churches of Cook and Lake Counties for the next year. The oils, Oil of the Catechumenate (used in Baptism), Oil of the Infirm (used in the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick), and the Sacred Chrism (used in the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders), is to be brought back to the local churches and presented to the people on Holy Thursday.

Lent officially ends and the Sacred Triduum begins at sundown on Holy Thursday with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. We commemorate the institution of the Holy Eucharist and receive the Mandatum, Christ's command to serve. This is played out in the washing of the feet. The Teacher and Master humbly washes the feet of his disciples. From this we learn to humbly serve. After receiving Holy Communion on Holy Thursday night, there's no dismissal. The liturgy will be continued on Friday. I encourage you to take part in the visitation of the seven churches or in the prayerful adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our own church.

On Friday, Good Friday, we continue our three-day liturgy with the reading of the Passion, the prayers for the Church and the world, the veneration of the Holy Cross, and the reception of Holy Communion. It is the only day of the year when it is forbidden to celebrate Mass. (We will have a celebration of the Passion at 3:00 pm at SFX and 7:30 pm at Saint Joseph on Good Friday.) The Eucharist we receive is that which is consecrated on Holy Thursday. We'll leave in silence, patiently, hopefully waiting for the celebration of the Resurrection.

On Holy Saturday at 7:30 pm we will gather outside Saint Francis Xavier Church, around the new fire. We'll bless the fire and the Paschal Candle that will carry its light into our darkened church. We'll listen to seven readings that chronicle salvation history, sing many psalms, proclaim the Gospel of the Resurrection, baptize new Christians, renew our own Baptismal promises, welcome new members into full communion, and celebrate their Confirmation. We'll pray with them as they receive Holy Communion for the very first time. Then, on Easter day, we will continue the celebration of new life, Christ's, and ours!

Let's not just live as if it's just another week. These days define who we are as Catholic Christians; they give us a purpose and promise us that we can live forever. So often I hear of families traveling or being too busy to commit to the hours required to truly experience the Triduum. I guarantee you that if you invest your time into truly entering the mysteries Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday unveil, you will not be disappointed. Bring your friends! Let's fill our churches this week.

Peace,

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 24 and all are invited to celebrate with us at St. Joseph Church. The service will begin after the conclusion of 10:30am Mass.

In 2000, Pope St. John Paul II asked everyone to honor our Lord and receive His merciful love on the Sunday after Easter every by participating in a special prayer service. All who take part shall receive extraordinary graces and have the opportunity to get a plenary indulgence and receive His infinite mercy on that day! You can find additional information at www.marion.org. Jesus, I trust in you!

From the Loft

The choral anthem heard at the 9:30am SFX Mass is "O vos omnes" by Blake Henson. Henson composed this beautifully moving piece in 2006 on a text taken from the Old Testament, Lamentations 1:12. Jeremiah, the prophet, spoke these words as a lament over the destruction of Jerusalem and the Israelites being led into captivity. Portions of Jeremiah's five great songs of Lamentation, and the O Vos Omnes in particular, are often sung texts during Holy Week. Below is a translation of the text:

O all you who pass along this way, behold and see if there is any sorrow like unto my sorrow.

On Wednesday April 13th, Tenebrae will take place at SFX Church at 7:30pm. This candlelit service features a beautiful account of the Passion of Christ underscored by dramatic live music from the 20th and 21st century. Please join us.

Respect Life Ministry

Good Friday – Stations of the Cross for All Life

Through His Holy Passion, Our Lord united Himself with all the victims of suffering in this life. None suffer more innocently than children in the womb whose lives are taken by abortion. None suffer more deeply than their mothers, who carry a burden of guilt and shame.

Please join us on Good Friday as we remember all the victims of abortion – the children lost, the mothers and fathers wounded, the communities blighted – in a solemn prayer service.

Where: on the sidewalks in front of the Carafem abortion clinic, in the medical office highrise at 4711 Golf Rd, Skokie, IL (½ block east of Skokie Blvd)

When: Good Friday, April 15, 2022, 9:00 – 10:00

Parking: at any of the shopping areas or the hotel near the intersection of Golf Rd and Skokie Blvd

Contact: no rsvp is needed but call or text Claudia Morse-Karzen at 847-924-9089 for more information
