Dear Friends,

Grace and peace! Over the summer, the Bishops of the United States began a three-year Eucharistic Revival, which kicked off on Corpus Christi in June. This revival aims to help Catholics across the United States develop a renewed belief and understanding of the real presence of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. Bishop Bartosic asked me to be his representative on a committee established to help advise Cardinal Cupich on how we may be able to breathe life into our Eucharistic faith during this period of revival. After prayer and discussing the invitation with Fr. Wayne, I graciously accepted the opportunity in July. The revival will have a national, archdiocesan, and parish-level focus.

Questioning Jesus's reality in the Eucharist has been a struggle of faith from the beginning. In the sixth chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, Jesus emphatically states that he is the bread of life. His followers, having just been fed in the miracle of the multiplications of the loaves and fishes, found this teaching strange and stated, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" (Jn 6:60). They began to leave Our Lord, going away grumbling and proclaiming him mad. Rather than tone down his rhetoric and reduce his teaching to mean the Eucharist is only a symbol, Jesus instead doubles down and uses even more precise and emphatic language, adding that unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man, you have no life within you.

We can imagine what it may be like for Our Lord, surrounded by a massive crowd who all flee in frustration and disappointment when asked to stretch their faith and to trust in his word, which is truth. This great exchange, also known as the "Bread of Life Discourse," ultimately leads to a beautiful encounter between Jesus and Peter, where Jesus asks Peter if he will leave him too. Peter and the disciples had every opportunity to walk away. Instead, Peter speaks on their behalf and replies, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (Jn 6:68).

The Second Vatican Council calls Sunday Mass, particularly the Eucharist at Sunday Mass, the source and summit of our Catholic faith. In addition, frequent reception of Holy Communion has been emphatically encouraged since Pope Pius X lowered the age of First Communion because it is challenging to develop a relationship with someone when we are not spending time with them.

On the parish level, Fr. Wayne, our staff, various committees and I are working very hard to hear you, see you, and meet you where we are each located within our faith journeys. Our survey last year has been an invaluable source of information about where we are as a parish and where the Holy Spirit calls us to go. In addition to a desire for more community within our parish, the survey and various committees have asked for a Mass on Sunday evenings.

For this reason, beginning Sunday, October 16, we will be adding a 4:45 pm Sunday Mass at our St. Joseph Church. We will ask different groups and classes from the Saints JFX School and YFF programs to help in the various roles (greeters, ushers, lectors, etc.) for the Mass. If it has been difficult to attend Mass on Sunday mornings, we encourage you to join us on Sunday evenings.

We desire to help the Saints JFX family fall more in love with our Lord, with various opportunities to worship God together and receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Please stay tuned for more details about this change in the coming weeks and for more opportunities for our parish diocese and nation to grow in our Eucharistic faith. Please pray for us as we prepare for this addition, and please be assured of our prayers for you. Let's become great saints together!

Peace,

Fr. Robert Ryan

MINISTRY FAIR

The 2nd Annual Saints JFX Ministry Fair will be held on Sunday September 25, immediately following the 10:30am Mass at St. Joseph Church. The Fair will be held in the green space between the church and the annex. Donuts and coffee will be provided. Come learn about all the ministries at Saints JFX. We'll have representatives from several of our ministries including the Women's Club, Choir, Sharing Parish, Lectors, Stewardship, Welcoming Committee and more. Stop by on September 25 and sign up!

The Saints JFX Women's Club welcomes women of all ages. Members focus on social and fundraising events, as well as spiritual development and charity based services. Join the Women's Club and be a part of our parish family. All members receive a copy of the membership directory, a monthly e-mail newsletter and invitations to all events hosted by the Women's Club.

There are two kinds of membership in the Women's Club, Guild Members and Associate Members.

Guild Members are affiliated with a specific guild (group) and are encouraged to attend guild meetings held during the year. Members may join more than one guild. Guild meetings provide an opportunity for members to meet new people, renew friendships and participate in the vibrant life of our parish. Detailed guild descriptions can be found on the parish website.

In addition to Guild activities, members are encouraged to attend our Fall Membership, Christmas, and Spring Installation dinners, the Valentine's Tea Fundraiser, and participate in other events and activities.

Associate Members are not a part of any specific guild, and are also welcome to attend the Fall Membership, Christmas, and Spring Installation dinners and the Valentine's Tea Fundraiser. In addition, these members can participate in other events and activities listed on our Membership Form.

CURRENT members are asked to renew their membership every year by completing a short form and paying annual dues of $35 to the club.

NEW members are invited to join the Women's Club by completing the same form and paying the $35 dues.

You can find detailed guild information, and join or renew your membership to the Women's Club on the parish website (ssjfx.org/womens-club.html).

TAIZÉ
Prayer & Music

The Saints JFX Parish Choir invites you to an evening prayer service of song, silence, and contemplation that will quiet the mind, open the heart, and feed the soul.

Thursday, October 6th • 7:30pm
St. Joseph Church • 1747 Lake Ave, Wilmette

SING • PRAY • RELAX

From the Loft

This weekend we celebrate Oktoberfest at the St. Joseph campus with festivities taking place Saturday September 17. Hymns selected for the Saturday Masses at St. Joseph are of German origin, and the first verse of each hymn will be sung in German, followed by English words. On Sunday, St. Joseph will use the same hymns but use only the English lyrics. We hope you enjoy this "nod" to our German heritage.

The Saints JFX Parish choir returns to SFX this Sunday. The anthem heard at the 9:30 am Mass is "O Love" composed by Elaine Hagenberg with lyrics by 19th century Scottish minister George Matheson.
