19th Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."
He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" - Mt 14:28-30

Dear Friends,

"O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" This question posed by Jesus, asked to Peter, is really a question for all of us. Jesus works marvels in our world. Amazing things happen because of his great power. We experience many blessings from living the life of a Christian. But there is always the temptation to doubt.

Last week, I was with a classmate of mine from high school, who lost his wife of 31 years after what was supposed to have been a relatively routine surgery. He and his daughters expressed heartbreak. They asked me, "Doesn't this shake your faith?" All around us there are reasons to have shaken faith. Violence, polarization, isolation, poverty, and selfishness sometimes seem to prevail. The darkness looms. The waves crash over the boat of our lives. Fear creeps in.

We have experienced our own deep sorrow and difficulty this week in the parish family of Saints JFX. With the death of Jack, so many people have approached me with questions. I tell them that Jack expressed deep faith throughout his illness, up to and immediately before his surgery. We can allow that young man to inspire us to rid ourselves of fear - and to trust in the Lord who loves us, calls us, forgives us, and pursues us. Jesus tells us not to doubt. If we look at all that Jesus has done for us in our lives and then our world, we have great reason to trust, and great reason to hope. Fear paralyzes. Hope frees. The one who walks on water gives us hope and tells us not to fear.

I learn about life in the Gospel of today. The boat of our lives will most certainly over time encounter storms. We can review our own histories and see the storms we have encountered and can judge how we have handled the storms. The disciples allowed the storms to shake their faith. Matthew tells us that they were terrified. Were they terrified by the storms or by the presence of Jesus amid the storms? What about us? What do we do when we encounter the difficulties life presents? Do we allow our hearts and our spirits to be tossed about? Or do we remember that Jesus can calm those storms?

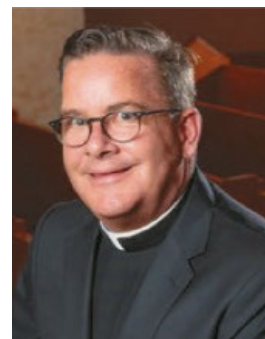

Peter's comments in today's Gospel seem bold and ill advised. His demand to Jesus, after Jesus walked toward the disciples on the water, encouraging confidence, courage, and trust, seems brazen and bold. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

We can learn from the audacity of Peter. He also calls out to Jesus in need. We should too. We shouldn't be afraid to speak to Jesus as one friend speaks to another. Jesus wants us to be close, to call on him, to allow him to touch our lives and calm our storms. Of course, we learn that Jesus can raise us up from a sinking abyss. He has power over wind and rain, storms, and sorrow. All we need to do is trust.

The psalmist trusted God And often sang about that trust, his hope, and God's love. Today's responsorial psalm says, "Lord let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation." God's kindness is endless and ever generous. The psalmist believed in that kindness and hoped for the salvation promised. When we get caught in grief, fear, bitterness, or sorrow, we are unable to see God's kindness and forget to hope for the salvation promised to all who believe.

The disciples thought they were seeing a ghost. They were terrified. Jesus encouraged them to take courage and to see his saving power. Once they saw his power exhibited in his encounter with Peter, they believed, they worshipped, and they followed. "Truly, you are the Son of God," they exclaimed. As disciples of the risen Lord, let us look in our own lives at the saving power of God. Let us be aware of our own encounters with Jesus, and the great things he does for us. And when we see God's power and the merciful love of Jesus, let us echo the words of those in the boat: "Truly you are the son of God!"

Peace,

 Saints JFX School

We need volunteers – join us in this work of love!

Do you have a heart for people suffering infirmity or loss? The sick, the infirm, and the grieving, and their families, are visited, accompanied, and loved through Saints JFX Ministries of Care and Bereavement. We need more volunteers to meet the great need for compassionate presence and prayer!

Ministry of Care

I was sick and you visited Me. Mt 25:36

People who cannot come to church are comforted and strengthened by the embrace of the Body of Christ. In our visits to homes, senior facilities, and Evanston Hospital, our ministers provide that embrace through presence, conversation, and Holy Communion.

Bereavement

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Mt 5:4

Our ministers accompany the grieving by assisting with planning and staffing the funeral for their loved one. We enfold them in our All-Souls' Day Mass when we pray for our beloved dead together.

To learn more about the volunteer roles available, please call the Ministry of Care Line at 847-256-2273 (CARE) or email Mary Clare Birmingham at mbirmingham@ssjfx.org. Training takes place in September and October so don't wait. Please join us!

Invest In Kids Tax Credit Scholarships

Illinois' bipartisan Invest in Kids Tax Credit Scholarship Program provides need-based scholarships for students to attend private schools. Donors who give through Empower Illinois receive a 75% state income tax credit on their gift. Your tax credit scholarship donation will help students from low-income and working-class communities attend their best-fit school. This program will sunset by the end of 2023 unless legislators reauthorize it to continue. Please help! Contact your legislator to ask that the program be continued. You can use the following link to write an email or place a call: <https://p2a.co/gmqrehi>

Also, please consider being part of the Saints JFX Sharing our Gifts Campaign. Our goal is to fund every student in line for a scholarship at St. Thomas of Canterbury and St. Mary of the Lake Schools for the 2023-24 school year. Together, we can help all 160 students receive a tax credit scholarship by raising our goal of $1 million.

We invite you to contact Katie Taylor, from Empower Illinois, at 312-392-0220 ext. 212, or katie@empowerillinois.org to begin the process of investing your tax dollars into a gift of education.
